

Old Boy

As part of a collaboration this month with the Royal Thai Embassy in Brussels, we are featuring the Thai mango variety Nam Dok Mai throughout our menu.

Highly regarded for its delicate texture, natural sweetness and aromatic profile, this mango is a cornerstone of Thai culinary culture.

At Old Boy, it appears across a series of dishes designed to explore its full range – from bright and savory to rich and indulgent.

Some of our dishes are quite spicy and most contain fish sauce.

Please ask your server to advise and do let us know about any allergies or dietary requirements.
